June 2019 Newsletter

Our Mission

We are a welcoming congregation that follows the teachings of Christ.

We: invite all people, celebrate diversity, practice God's all-inclusive love and accept God's call to spiritual growth.

Serving God and the People of Ogdensburg since October 10, 1805

SUNDAY MORNING WORSHIP 10:00 AM

Early Morning Worship will be in July & August at 8:30 am by the gazebo. See events.

Vacation Bible School

VBS will be July 15 – 19, 2019 this year. We need volunteers to lead, and for preparing and serving lunch! Please call the church office or email if you would like to help out! (See events for times.)

MARK YOUR CALENDARS! July 27, 2019 is your date for a busy and fun morning at Church. That's the day we run the concession stand during the Seaway Festival Parade. We will need lots of help to set up the stand, cook and serve the food, and then clean-up. So, reserve the date, plan to join us and watch the church bulletins as we get closer to the day for more specific information. We promise you'll be busy and enjoy working with the Concession Crew! The Mission Committee

PW Fudge Sale and Quilt Raffle Tickets

The Presbyterian Women will be having fudge for sale and raffle tickets for a beautiful white, red and blue quilt at the Seaway Festival Parade. The drawing for the quilt will be in December.

Thursday Afternoon Knitting Group

The Knitting Group will not meet in July and August. It will resume in September. Please watch the bulletin for details. Enjoy the summer!

Deacon's Committee

The Deacon's Committee does not meet in July or August. The meetings will resume in September. Enjoy the summer!

Choir and Bell Choir Rehearsals

Choir and Bell Choir will not have rehearsals in July and August. They will resume in September. Enjoy the summer!

Camp Laurent

August 5th – 11th! Come any time of day or come and stay the week!!! This year we would like to have people sign up to cover the kitchen each day, so contemplate that thought. Like last year we will be sure and have lots of snacks, cereal, bread, and sandwich items. Water available all day - every day. So we basically need the evening meals signed up for.

Christian Jokes

You Shouldn't Skip Church

A country preacher decided to skip services one Sunday and head to the hills to do some bear hunting. As he rounded the corner on a perilous twist in the trail, he and a bear collided, sending him and his rifle tumbling down the mountain side.

Before he knew it, his rifle went one way and he went the other, landing on a rock and breaking both legs. That was the good news. The bad news was the ferocious bear charging at him from a distance, and he couldn't move.

"Oh Lord," the preacher prayed, "I'm so sorry for skipping services today to come out here and hunt. Please forgive me and grant me just one wish... please make a Christian out of that bear that's coming at me. Please Lord!"

That very instant, the bear skidded to a halt, fell to its knees, clasped its paws together and began to pray aloud right at the preacher's feet.

"Dear Lord, bless this food I am about to receive... in Jesus' name... Amen."

Thru a Child's Eyes

It was late at night and Heidi, who was expecting her second child, was home alone with her 3 year old daughter, Katelyn. Heidi started to go into labor and called 911.

Due to a power outage at the time, only one paramedic was able to respond to the call.

The house was very, very dark, so the paramedic asked Katelyn to hold a flashlight high over her mommy so he could see while he helped deliver the baby.

Very diligently, Katelyn did as she was asked. Heidi pushed and pushed, and after a little while Connor was born. The paramedic lifted him by his feet, and spanked him on his bottom. Connor began to cry.

The paramedic than thanked Katelyn for her help, and asked the wide-eyed 3 year old Katelyn what she thought about what she had witnessed. Katelyn quickly responded, "He shouldn't have crawled in there in the first place. Spank him again."
